

Graciela “Grace” Jimenez, LMFT, Manager with Community Health:

Graciela “Grace” Jimenez is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist and Manager with Community Health at Baptist Health South Florida. She obtained a Master’s in Marriage and Family Therapy from the University of Miami. She has provided comprehensive behavioral health treatment for individuals and families with mental health issues in private practice, community mental health settings, and hospital sites. She has worked as an employee assistance professional with BHSF since 2004. She is currently the Manager overseeing the clinical team and offers presentations on mental health and well-being to the community. Throughout her career, she has presented at professional conferences, has been featured on South Florida’s PBS Health Channel, and for the community.